

Hyde War Memorial Hall 'Art Space' welcomes

Felicity Singleton, presenting seascapes and landscapes from her studio in the New Forest.

"My paintings capture the emotional reaction to a scene, not just a visual representation. In my work I try to enter into a place in my memory and convey the feelings it evokes. I like the viewer to own the picture by stopping and putting a part of themselves into it; to pause, leave your worries behind and enter into a different world for a few moments."

Many of Felicity's pieces are inspired by the North Cornwall Coast where she spent much of her childhood. She now lives in the New Forest where she has also found inspiration.

Felicity's pictures are for sale and each is labelled and priced separately.

Please contact Felicity directly if you wish to make an enquiry.
